CALL FOR STRENGTHENING FATHERLAND FRONT -- Sofia, Izgreve, 29 Sep 50

The permanent committee of the Fatherland Front held a meeting on 26 September 1950, at which its secretary-general, Georgi Grozev, reported on the work and duties of the organization. The heads of the agricultural department of the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party, Stoilov and Milkovski, reported on the urgent necessity of mobilizing all requisites for overhauling agricultural machinery, seed cleaning and disinfecting, fall plowing, and strawberry planting.

The secretary-general of the National Council of the Fatherland Front, Ferdinand Kozovski, made the following recommendations: the organization must be further strengthened, mainly in the rural areas; it must endeavor to enroll new members, especially among women, and also to recruit all members of the OZPS (General Agricultural Trade Union); the committees must increase their number of voluntary workers and establish larger groups of agitators, including also nonparty members of the Front. Every member must be fully conscious of the assignments delegated to the Fatherland Front by the Central Committee of the Bulgarian Communist Party and the government.
